About the Program

Please join us on Friday, August 27, 2010, from 11:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m.

Enjoy a luncheon and an inspirational and educational program. We are pleased to announce our presenters, KimberLee Mudge, M.D., F.A.C.S., Leader Surgical Associates, York and a local breast cancer survivor.

Dr. Mudge was born and raised in northern Pennsylvania. Her parents were teachers and loved the outdoors, so it followed suit that Dr. Mudge does also. Her undergraduate, masters and medical degrees are from Marshall University in West Virginia. Her residency program was at York Hospital and her fellowship in breast diseases at Eastern Virginia School of Medicine. Dr. Mudge began her private practice in 1997, and serves on many medical committees.

Her love of the outdoors has taken her hiking, kayaking and fly fishing all over the United States and her restored historical home is surrounded by beautiful gardens, fruit trees, an organic vegetable garden and her family's own bee hives.

Dr. Mudge is a general surgeon specializing in breast health care. She is an advocate for preventative breast cancer care and knowledgeable of the most current treatment modalities. Dr. Mudge has been featured in multiple publications, speaks to groups and organizations and has been on numerous television programs addressing breast health care issues.
