

Keeping your employees well at work.

OCCUPATIONAL HEALTH

Your employees are your most important asset. That's why Well at Work works closely with you to provide customized solutions that work: to promote the health and safety of your employees, while focusing on reducing health costs and improving productivity.

As your partner, we'll develop a customized, affordable approach that's easy to use, for both you and your employees.

You can build your program from a comprehensive menu of competitively priced services, many of which can be offered onsite. As an integrated health system focused on the health of our communities, WellSpan is right here where your employees live and work, with convenient locations across central Pennsylvania.

When you partner with WellSpan, you are selecting a team of experienced professionals with:

- ✓ Expert knowledge of federal and state regulations including DOT, OSHA and FAA.
- ✓ Comprehensive services including injury prevention and management, pre-employment physicals and drug screenings.

Our commitment to your workforce

WellSpan is more than your healthcare provider – we're your healthcare partner. And our expertise and personalized solutions will help keep your employees healthy, safe and productive.
